PROFILE

Lufthansa Flight Training GmbH (LFT) is a wholly owned Lufthansa subsidiary and since 1997 has been an independent provider of advanced and in-service training for flight personnel in the global market. Today, LFT's customer base includes more than 150 airlines from all over the world in addition to the Lufthansa Group's flight operations.

The company's product portfolio encompasses basic training for pilots and flight attendants, flight simulator training, emergency and service training plus a wide range of e-learning products.

With a total of 38 cockpit simulators stationed in Frankfurt, Berlin, Vienna, Munich, Zurich and Bremen, LFT is one of the largest European training centres for pilots and flight attendants. The managing directors of the company are Florian Hamm and Ludwig Merkel.
